

INTRODUCTION OF SEU 2022 INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL PROGRAM

Courses Offered:

1. Reading and Review of Medical Literature
2. Basic First Aid Medicine Skills
3. Clinical Nursing Skills II
4. Clinical Practice
5. Clinical Internship
6. Extracurricular Medicine Frontier Lectures

Application requirements:

Online observation and study are recommended for undergraduates and postgraduates students majoring in clinical medicine, medical imaging, and nursing, regardless of grade.

Application Deadline:

2022.6.30

Host and Organizer:

School of Medicine
Southeast University

Clinical Capability Improvement Project for Medical Students

2022.8.8-2022.9.4

This project is organized by the School of Medicine of Southeast University. It offers courses in different forms, such as Reading and Review of Medical Literature, Basic first aid medicine skills, Clinical nursing skills, clinical practice, clinical internship, Extracurricular Medicine Frontier Lectures, aims to cultivate students' interest in clinical thinking and skill operation, as well as their basic scientific research ability. The courses include theoretical explanation, classic case analysis, and clinical skill practice.

The lectures are given by teachers with long-term overseas study and work experience, and well-known international experts in related fields. This program is open to international students from partner universities while opening to clinical medicine students of our school.

School of Medicine
Southeast University