Instructor: Dr. John Patrick, Assistant Director of Forensics, Cal State San Luis Obispo

Day 5 – Thursday, July 21, 2016 – Pomona
10:00AM-12:00PM Toxic and Intoxicating Leadership
Location:
Are there styles of leadership which would be considered toxic in any culture at any time? What are the cultural, historical and contextual apologies for bullies and tyrants? What should followers do? Students will deepen their understanding of communication theory to sharpen their sense of what makes a “good” leader. What are the features which stand out in any culture or any time or any situation? The class will look at historical leaders to consider the differing forces of culture, gender, warfare, geography and climate in the formation of good leaders. How do peoples make it through tough times intact?

Instructor: Dr. John Patrick, Assistant Director of Forensics, Cal State San Luis Obispo

2:00PM-4:00PM
Location: Team Building Activities

For any team to succeed, 8 or so essential roles must be carried out with leadership appropriate to each. Learn about these roles, how individuals change roles or take on more than one, and then based on each team’s experience and each individual’s self-assessment, all roles will be distributed among each team’s 5 or so members. Students will then cluster in new temporary teams according to self-assessment insights and role assignments. These teams will be formed each with a distribution of styles. The activity will culminate with a fun and friendly competition. The kit of materials for the final project will be distributed to each team.

Day 6 – Friday, July 22, 2016 – Pomona

9:00AM-9:30AM
Location: Travel Briefing

Learn about what you will see, get maps, find out about shopping and restaurants and learn the rules for the day. Each team will also have some specific instructions for fun things to find and report about.

10:00AM-12:00PM
Location: University of California, Irvine tour

Students will have learned about the importance of agricultural and industrial fairs in the history of the US. Students will experience the tradition of the county fair and its agricultural roots as it persists into the post-industrial era. Groups will be asked to find certain features of the fair and report on their history and meaning in the American context.
